

Type PR/AS

Product information

The protector PR/AS serves as abrasion protection of cable protection conduits and energy packages. The PR/AS makes the motion sequences more dynamic, increasing the flexibility of the dresspacks and at the same time increasing the service life.

Further advantages:

- Minimization of noise development
- Tool-free and subsequent mounting due to attached hook-and-loop tape
- No loose parts
- Robot-friendly due to the use of abrasion-resistant special fabric
